ICOONE® LASER

Services, Packages & Memberships

OUR SERVICES

Icoone® Laser — Lymphatic Drainage & Body Wellness

The revolutionary Icoone® Laser system uses patented Roboderm® technology with millions of micro-stimulations per session to activate the lymphatic system, stimulate collagen and elastin production, and trigger deep cellular renewal. For detoxification, it eliminates toxins and restores circulatory balance. For pain management, it relieves chronic tension and reduces inflammation. For athletes, it flushes metabolic waste, reduces recovery time, and enhances flexibility. For beauty and body contouring, Icoone® Laser delivers exceptional aesthetic results — visibly reducing cellulite, tightening and firming skin, smoothing the appearance of stretch marks, sculpting and reshaping body contours, improving skin texture and luminosity, and restoring a more youthful, toned silhouette. The multi-functional laser handpieces simultaneously deliver laser energy and mechanical stimulation, allowing treatments to be customized for the face, neck, and décolleté as well as the full body — addressing fine lines, sagging skin, and loss of facial volume alongside body contouring goals. Results are cumulative and progressive, with clients typically noticing measurable improvements in skin quality, firmness, and contour definition within the first few sessions.

What you may experience after your Icoone® Laser Lymphatic Drainage Session

Icoone® Laser lymphatic drainage is a deeply effective treatment, and understanding what your body may experience in the hours and days following your session helps you get the most from your results. Most clients find the experience relaxing and deeply therapeutic — both during and after.

Immediate Potential Aftereffects

Many clients experience a profound sense of relaxation and lightness immediately following treatment. Because the lymphatic system is highly stimulated, you may notice an increased need to urinate in the hours after your session — this is a positive sign that your body is actively eliminating accumulated fluid and toxins. Mild fatigue is also common and reflects your body's natural detoxification response at work. Some clients notice a pleasant sensation of warmth or mild tingling in the treated areas as circulation and lymphatic flow are enhanced.

Short-Term Potential Aftereffects

You may observe visible reduction in puffiness, swelling, and water retention, particularly in the face, abdomen, and legs. Skin may appear noticeably more toned, smooth, and radiant as improved microcirculation delivers oxygen and nutrients to the surface layers. Clients managing chronic inflammation or post-surgical swelling often report a meaningful reduction in discomfort and a sense of general physical relief. Mild soreness or sensitivity in deeply treated areas is normal and typically resolves within 24 to 48 hours.

Cumulative Results Over Time

With a series of sessions, clients experience progressive and lasting improvements including measurable reduction in cellulite and body circumference, firmer and more supple skin texture, improved detoxification and immune function, enhanced athletic performance and faster muscle recovery, reduction of chronic pain and post-operative swelling, and a visible improvement in the appearance of stretch marks and scar tissue. Long-term lymphatic health supports hormonal balance, better sleep quality, clearer skin, and sustained energy levels.

Post-Session Care Recommendations

To support your body's natural detoxification process and maximize your results, we recommend drinking plenty of water (at least 64 ounces) following each session, avoiding alcohol and processed foods for 24 hours, engaging in light movement such as walking to support continued lymphatic circulation, and refraining from vigorous exercise or heat exposure (saunas, hot baths) for 12 hours post-treatment. Your KIAN Privé specialist will provide personalized post-care guidance tailored to your treatment goals.
